

CONTEMPORARY UNIT L | T5+1

Surrounded by gardens and with excellent solar exposure throughout the day; natural light floods the whole apartment, seeping into each room and inviting you to fully enjoy both the interior and the exterior. The large garden areas allow you to enjoy the outdoor life with family and friends. With its movable partition walls, the kitchen can be joined to the living room, to be more informal, or be closed off for more intimate events. On these occasions, an extra supporting room, with an independent entrance, can be used as a staff entrance or for catering deliveries.
